TOMAHAWK

Round-up at Winnsboro,
Texas

"Memory is like a child
walking along a seashore.
You can never tell what small pebble it will pick up and store among its treasured things."

May the 1983 Tomahawk find its way to your
"treasured" place.

And I Love Today . . .

Seniors '83

Our past twelve years have all gone by
Too fast for all us to see;
The times we've shared, the fun we've had,
Are now just a fading memory.

We've all grown up together,
As one team, our class would never fall;
Through bad times, good times, and times
in doubt,
The Seniors of 83 always had it all.
We've all learned to love one another,
And care about the friends we've known,

We've all seemed to mature with age,
As our school days are nearly gone.

Song: "We've Only Just Begun"

The halls we've walked together,
The classes we've all faired;
Are now only fading pictures,
As are the times that we all shared.

Our futures look bright,
Our memories never dark;
Winnsboro High School could never forget
us,
We seem to have left our mark.

But our day of departure is nearing,
The day when our journey is done;
But only to enter a new world,
A world that isn't all fun.

We will do well, though,
And make ourselves a place;
Because the Seniors of '83
All have a goal to chase.

A goal to be the best,
A goal to be unique;
A goal only we can attain,
We, the Class of '83.

Met my shadow.
